What is Eleven Mukhi Rudraksha?

Eleven Mukhi Rudraksha is a symbol of the eleven Rudra forms of Lord Shiva. It is also considered to be the form of Lord Hanuman. It provides courage, strength, and self-confidence. The person wearing it becomes free from all kinds of fear and crisis. Eleven Mukhi Rudraksha is considered very important due to its spiritual and astrological effects.

Eleven Mukhi Rudraksha has 11 lines on its surface. This Rudraksha is considered to be the incarnation of Lord Rudra. It represents Lord Hanuman who is also considered to be the 11th incarnation of Lord Shiva. The best quality of this Rudraksha is found in Nepal. Wearing it gives freedom from the fear of the cycle of birth and death. It is also called Ekadashi Rudra because it is blessed with the quality, dedication and meditation of Bajrangbali. This Rudraksha is also adorned with the blessings of Devraj Indra. It is said that if you wear this Rudraksha around the neck or head, you get instant results. This powerful bead has the blessings of 11 gods, which can make life better and remove all the problems of life.

Vedic astrology is an age-old study, which emphasizes the influence of planets on the lives of humans. The movement of some planets has a positive effect and some have a negative effect on various aspects of life. At the same time, these planets keep changing the zodiac from time to time and also keep changing their behavior. Usually it is very difficult for a common man to know the effect of these planets, due to which many times he starts doubting his hard work, so this is the time when you should contact an experienced astrologer who will study your horoscope and advise you about the remedies and events happening in life.

How did the Eleven Faced Rudraksha originate?

The origin of Eleven Faced Rudraksha is described in Shiva Purana. It is believed to have originated from the grace of the eleven Rudra forms of Lord Shiva. It makes the lives of devotees fearless, powerful and successful with divine blessings.

In physical terms, Rudraksha are the seeds of the Elaeocarpus Ganitrus tree, which is mainly grown in regions with spiritual heritage including the Himalayas, Indonesia and parts of Southeast Asia. In Sanskrit, 'Rudraksha' means 'Tears of Rudra' - a name for Lord Shiva. Ancient texts describe these beads as powerful spiritual tools that aid meditation, mental clarity and well-being. The Rudraksha tree is found in high-altitude, tropical forests. Mainly found in Nepal, India and Indonesia, this Rudraksha requires specific environmental conditions like high humidity and moderate temperatures. White flowers bloom on the tree, which later turn into fruits. When the fruit dries up, the seed, known as Rudraksha, is obtained.
