How did the Seven Mukhi Rudraksha originate?

According to mythological belief, the Seven Mukhi Rudraksha is associated with Goddess Lakshmi and Lord Kubera. It is believed that Lord Shiva produced various Rudrakshas from his tears to bless the world with happiness and prosperity. The Seven Mukhi Rudraksha is believed to be the abode of Goddess Lakshmi, which provides wealth, prosperity, and wealth to the person.

In the physical context, Rudraksha are the seeds of the Elaeocarpus Ganitrus tree, which is mainly grown in regions with spiritual heritage including the Himalayas, Indonesia, and parts of Southeast Asia. In Sanskrit, 'Rudraksha' means 'Tears of Rudra' - a name for Lord Shiva. Ancient texts describe these beads as powerful spiritual tools that aid meditation, mental clarity, and well-being. The Rudraksha tree is found in high-altitude, tropical forests. Mainly found in Nepal, India, and Indonesia, this Rudraksha requires specific environmental conditions such as high humidity and moderate temperatures. White flowers bloom on its tree, which later turn into fruits. When the fruit dries up, the seed, known as Rudraksha, is obtained.
