

Eight Faced Rudraksha – Symbol of Lord Ganesha

ॐ नमः शिवाय

" अष्टवक्त्रो महादेवो गणेशो विघ्ननाशनः।

अष्टमुखं तत्प्रमाणं च अष्टदिक्पालरक्षणम्। "

What is Eight Faced Rudraksha?

Eight Faced Rudraksha is like Lord Ganesha, the destroyer of obstacles. The one who wears it gets protection and success in all directions. Eight Faced Rudraksha is the symbol of Lord Ganesha. This Rudraksha is made up of eight faces (eight stripes), which makes it unique and impressive. The one who wears it gets the blessings of Lord Ganesha, who is known to bestow wisdom, prosperity, remove obstacles and success.

Eight Faced Rudraksha (8 Mukhi Rudraksha) has 8 natural vertical lines on its surface. If the lines are in a straight line, it is considered a real Rudraksha. This Rudraksha is considered to be the form of the first worshipped Lord Ganesha. Lord Ganesha is the son of Goddess Parvati and Lord Shiva, it is a symbol of intelligence and wisdom. Wearing it also brings the blessings of Bhairav Baba. This Rudraksha is believed to remove troubles in life and help people in distress. It is believed that wearing this Rudraksha gives virtue like bathing in the Ganges. The ruling planet of 8 Mukhi Rudraksha is Ketu, wearing this Rudraksha helps in reducing the bad effects of Rahu and Shani Dosh. 8 Mukhi Rudraksha is associated with the Muladhara Chakra, which represents the aspects of security and survival of a person.

According to Vedic astrology, both slow and fast movement of planets affects life significantly. Fast moving planets affect life for a very short period while slow moving planets affect people's life for a long period. Due to this, there are good and bad doshas in every birth chart, one of the most common and negative doshas is Kalsarp Dosh. The duration of this dosha lasts for a long time and affects life negatively. Wearing 8 Mukhi Rudraksha can nullify the effects of Kaal Sarp Dosh, as well as help overcome troubles and obstacles.

How did the Eight Mukhi Rudraksha originate?

According to scriptures, Rudraksha originated from the tears of Lord Shiva. When Lord Shiva meditated with his eyes closed, tears fell from his eyes, and where these tears fell, Rudraksha trees grew. The Eight Mukhi Rudraksha is inhabited by Lord Ganesha and is considered especially capable of removing physical and mental obstacles.

In the physical context, Rudraksha are the seeds of the Elaeocarpus Ganitrus tree, which is grown primarily in regions with spiritual heritage, including the Himalayas, Indonesia and parts of Southeast Asia. In Sanskrit, 'Rudraksha' means 'Tears of Rudra' - a name for Lord Shiva. Ancient texts describe these beads as powerful spiritual tools that aid meditation, mental clarity and well-being. The Rudraksha tree is found in high altitude, tropical forests. Mainly found in Nepal, India and Indonesia, this Rudraksha requires specific environmental conditions such as high humidity and moderate temperatures. White flowers bloom on its tree, which later turn into fruits. When the fruit dries up, the seed, known as Rudraksha, is obtained.
